Alexandria, VA – Allied Defense Industries, Inc. (ADI), an AMS Group Company specializing in supply chain management and spare parts distribution for military and aerospace applications, has been appointed as an exclusive distributor for Ultra Electronics Precision Air & Land Systems (PALS). ADI will provide worldwide support for Ultra’s OEM equipment in service on a range of platforms, including the C-130, AH-64, CH-47, NH-90 and AV8B aircraft.

The exclusive distributor agreement was signed last week at DSEI (the World’s leading defense and security event) in London by Mr. Mike Clayton, MD, Ultra Electronics PALS and Mr. Tim Gale, President and CEO, AMS Group, Inc. The new agreement will ensure long-term support of in-service equipment and further strengthen Ultra Electronics PALS position as a leading supplier of critical technology for Defense and Aerospace systems, by leveraging ADI’s leadership as a provider of integrated and innovative supply chain solutions.

About Ultra Electronics PALS: Ultra Electronics PALS is part of the Ultra Electronics Group. The group manages a portfolio of specialist capabilities, generating highly-differentiated solutions and products in the Defense & Aerospace, Security & Cyber, Transport and Energy markets, by applying electronic and software technologies in demanding and critical environments to meet customer needs.

About Allied Defense Industries, Inc. (ADI): ADI operates as a key member of the AMS Group Logistics Division. ADI is an ISO 9001:2008 registered military distributor specializing in supply chain management and the provision of logistics, including aftermarket spare parts to the U.S. Department of Defense, major prime contract holders/OEM’s, and foreign military agencies.
